

A Level PE Summer Task 2018

Create a continuum of the muscle fibre types from slow oxidative muscle fibres to fast glycolytic muscle fibres.

- Describe the functional demands and intensity and duration of each.
- Include different sports, different athletes and descriptions. Each muscle fibre type needs at least 4 different sporting examples along with a description/explanation as to why that particular performer requires that muscle fibre type.

